

Recital by Students from Acevedo Music & Art Foundation

Under Direction of Yin Yin Huan

About the program: Some of 2016 and 2017 American Fine Arts Festival, International American Protégé and international Two Cranes Music Festival top prize winners pianists, violinist, flutist and cellist will bring much joy to Villa Gardens residents with beautiful and spooky music. One of most sensational Broadway singer - Karen Benjamin Chapman will be here with her vocal student - Nadya Hitomi. Iris Lu, who just won American Protege International and will perform at Carnegie Hall in December, is delighted to perform her own composition- Song of rains in addition to Rachmaninoff Prelude in c# minor.

Saturday, October 28th
2:00 pm
Villa Vista